

The City of Ashburn is extremely excited about Georgia Cities Week 2025!

We are thrilled to imagine the possible with our Community.

Below is the Itinerary for April 21st through April 25th:

21 Monday, April 21, 2025

We request that our citizens post on our Facebook page their vision for our city using the hashtag #imaginethepossible.

We will also begin the coloring contest at the Turner County Elementary School which will be sponsored this year by our very own Sweet T's! We will also acknowledge our employees through-out the week.

Imagine

22 Tuesday, April 22, 2025

On Tuesday, between 9:00 a.m. & 11:00 a.m. Mrs. Michelle Taylor under the leadership of Principal Laberton Sims will bring the Pre-K Tour to Ashburn City Hall. After visiting City Hall They will move next door to the Municipal Courthouse the Ashburn Public Safety will be there to educate Pre-K Students on Public Safety. The City of Ashburn, Firefighters, Fire Truck along with Police & Police Cars will be on location. The kids will be provided with a goodie bag & Sno Biz will be on site with their flavorful ice creations!

23 Wednesday, April 23, 2025

On Wednesday at 10:00 a.m. there will be story time at the Victoria Evans Library with a City Official. They will read and do crafts with the Children.

I LOVE READING

24 Thursday, April 24, 2025

Holly Gibson will be doing an art exhibition at 1:00 p.m. at the Red Wall Gallery, located at 113 East College Avenue. The City of Ashburn in conjunction with Sweet T's Food Truck will be there providing wings and a drink for those in attendance.

25 Friday, April 25, 2024

Ashburn City Officials will announce the winners of the coloring contest from the Turner County Elementary School. The winner from each grade will receive a framed award along with a gift certificate from Sweet T's for one free cheeseburger meal.

Following the announcement of the winners we ask that the community join us for a Noon Meditation and Prayer for the City of Ashburn led by our newest City Council Member, Jonathan Perry. Our staff will be treated to an Employee Lunch from Keith-A-Que in appreciation of their hard work and dedication to the City of Ashburn.

